Activity Two – A question of taste:

Ask the following questions to the other people in the group to find out more about them, move around the room and try to talk to everyone.

1. How do you like your steak?
2. Do you prefer tea or coffee?
3. Do you prefer beer or wine?
4. Do you like Coke or Pepsi?
5. Do you prefer sparkling or still water?
6. Do you have a sweet tooth?
7. Do you eat health foods?
8. Are you a vegetarian?
9. Do you like eating out?
10. Do you like spicy food?

Activity Three – Order whatever you want.

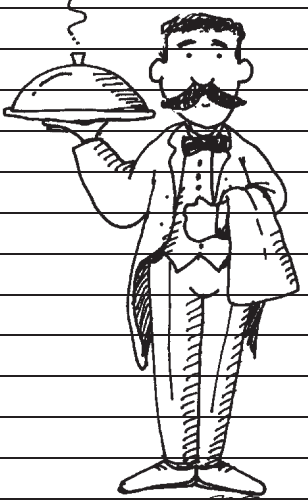

When ordering food here is what we say in English:

- I would like the...
- I'd like to order...
- Please could I have the ... and the ...
- Do you have any...
- Could I have the on the side please
- Could I have an extra...
- I'd like the... please with extra...
- I'd like to start with... and then...

Now Practice ordering from foods in activities one and two...

You are in a restaurant and your partner is taking the order .

Activity Four (Please do not prepare this at home) - In teams – number the following sentences in the correct order. They are all expressions a waiter will use. Let's see which team finishes first...

A. Would you like any drinks with your meal?
B. See you soon.
C. Would you like any coffees?
D. Can I get you a drink while you look at the menu?
E. Here's the bill. Have a great evening.
F. Hello
G. My name is Raymond and I am your waiter today.
H. How many of you would like starters?
I. Would you like to order your desert now?
J. How do you like your steak?
K. Are you ready to order?
L. What would you like for your main course?

Activity Five – In groups of three or four act out a role-play, ordering some food in one of the restaurants. Choose from the menus.

Activity Six – Watch the film extract and explain what goes wrong! Remember, you are not supposed to understand everything; you just need to listen for key information.

Prawns are off - Fawlty Towers - BBC
Fawlty Towers - Wrongly Shaped Chips
Restaurant Sketch - Monty Python

Work with your partner and use a dictionary to describe what happens.

Activity Seven – ‘Go to’ one of the following types of restaurant and act out a strange scene with your partner. First say which of these types of restaurant you like.
